

RAY RIEGER TRAINING

What happened to my original deal

Oh your original deal never went away, these are just two other options that you were approved for. Option number one puts you in a better equity position because you pay the loan off sooner and Option number two puts you in a better longterm position because you get a lower rate lower payment and you are protected.